URGENT NOTIFICATION TO ALL PROVINCES, REGIONS & PLAYERS

UPLIFTMENT OF SUSPENSION OF CHESS SA MEMBERS

This notification serves to inform you that SASCOC had scheduled a meeting with Chess SA, which was held on Saturday 09 June 2018 at the SASCOC Offices, Olympic House, Johannesburg. The outcome of the said meeting was that a decision was reached to the effect that:

1. All the suspended Provinces (Chess SA Members) should be reinstated with immediate effect, due to the following reasons:
 - 1.1. the resultant non-compliance of Chess SA to SASCOC, in terms of the Sports and Recreation Act, which stipulates that a National Federation should have a minimum of 5 Provinces as members in order to be compliant;
 - 1.2. to give and create a conducive environment within which a rescheduled Elective Annual General Meeting (AGM) of Chess SA could be held; and
 - 1.3. the ruling by the Chess SA Constitutional Committee, which technically nullified the SGM's decisions that dealt with the Member suspensions and matters related thereto.Therefore, in terms of the above, the suspension is hereby uplifted with immediate effect.
2. All Chess SA members (Provinces) should be in good standing in terms of the Chess SA Constitution before participating in the rescheduled Elective Annual General Meeting (AGM), which shall be organised in terms of the Chess SA Constitution.

Yours sincerely
